

SAXTON'S CORNET BAND

FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY, USA

BIOGRAPHY

Saxton's Cornet Band recreates the sounds, the appearance, and the conduct of brass bands during the Victorian Era from the American Civil War to the turn of the century. Highly regarded as one of the best brass ensembles in the world, they have been sought after for concerts, music festivals, lectures, movie and television scores, and masterclasses in the United States and Asia. Their recordings are considered to be the pinnacle of accuracy and musicianship among music historians and brass aficionados across the world.

RELEASES

"Sounds from the Opera House" (2021)

"Lincoln and Liberty, Too!" (2009)

"1861-1865: Music of the Civil War" (2007)

"You Naughty, Naughty Men" (2001)

CONTACT

Karen Cubides, Cubides Artists
Karen@cubidesartists.com
www.cubidesartists.com
www.saxtonscornetband.com

NOTEABLE PERFORMANCES

Cleveland Pops Symphony Orchestra
Lexington Philharmonic Orchestra
Firelands Symphony Orchestra
Millikin University Wind Ensemble
Indiana Wind Symphony
Great American Brass Band Festival
George W. Bush Presidential Inauguration
International Tour of Taiwan (ROC)
American Public Media's "Performance Today"
Turner Movie Network movie "Gettysburg"
NBC TV series "Timeless"
National Geographic documentary "Killing Lincoln"
TNT movie "The Day Lincoln Was Shot"

SOCIAL MEDIA

